Status Report on 2013-2014 Joint Board Goals
2013-2014
Joint Board Goals

1. Improved reporting and data tracking

2. Include parenting and English for Speakers of Other Languages (ESOL) classes in AB86 planning

3. Implement a San Diego Unified Board resolution supporting SB 850

4. Implement early/middle college high school programs, linking two San Diego Unified high schools with the SDCCD credit colleges/Continuing Education

5. Implement strategies for communications with the community

6. Expand Systematic Partnership relationship via Master Memorandum of Understanding structure
Goal 1: Improved reporting and data tracking

In the following areas:

a) Student success, including high school graduates (completion of college courses and programs)

b) Student participation in Career Technical Education (CTE) programs, and student transition to college and/or the workforce

c) Student transition from early/middle college high school programs to college
Goal 1a: Student Success

Presenter: Dr. Lynn Neault, SDCCD
Enrollments
2009/10 to 2013/14

• On average, approximately 2,500 (33%) high school graduates from San Diego Unified enroll annually at City, Mesa or Miramar colleges within one year following their high school graduation.

• On average, approximately 59% of San Diego Unified students concurrently enrolled at City, Mesa or Miramar colleges take an Advanced College Placement (ACP) course on the high school campus.
Placement in Mathematics

Math Placement

• On average, 36% of first-time to college students at SDCCD who take the placement test within the first year, place at transfer or college level math

  • San Diego Unified students: 33% place at transfer or college level math

  • Other high school graduates: 39% place at transfer or college level math
Placement in English

Writing Placement

- On average, 24% of first-time to college students at SDCCD who take the writing placement test within the first year, place at college level English writing.

- San Diego Unified students: 21% place at college level English writing, and 79% place at basic skills or below.

- Other high school graduates: 27% place at transfer level English writing; 73% place at basic skills.
Reading Placement

- On average 49% of first-time to college students at SDCCD who take the reading placement test within the first year, place at college level reading

- San Diego Unified students: 44% place at college level reading

- Other high school graduates: 53% place at college level reading
Retention, Success, & Persistence

Retention:
• First term course retention rates for San Diego Unified graduates remained steady between 2009/10 and 2013/14 (86%-88%)
• Rates are similar to all first-time to college high school graduate retention rates, on average (87% each)

Successful Course Completion:
• First term course success rates for San Diego Unified graduates increased from 61% in 2009/10 to 64% in 2013/14
• These rates were similar to other first-time to college and all first-time to college high school graduate success rates (64% each)
Retention, Success, & Persistence - Continued

Term Persistence
• First term persistence rates (fall-spring) increased five percentage points between 2008 (78%) and 2012 (83%) for San Diego Unified graduates
• San Diego Unified graduates’ first term persistence rates (83%) were higher than other first-time to college (77%) and all first-time to college (79%) high school graduates

Annual Persistence
• San Diego Unified students’ annual persistence rates (fall-spring-fall) increased eight percentage points between 2008 (57%) and 2012 (65%)
• Average annual persistence rates (64%) were higher than other first-time to college (55%) and all first-time to college (59%) high school graduates
Goal 1b: Student participation in Career Technical Education (CTE) programs, and student transition to college and/or workforce

Presenter: Dr. Pamela Luster, SDCCD
Mesa College
Baccalaureate Degree Pilot
Health Information Management (HIM)

It’s Official!
Mesa to offer 4-year degree!
The Health Information Management (HIM) Degree Program

• Mesa College is known for its comprehensive Allied Health programs; it has offered an associate degree in Health Information Technology (HIT) for 40 years

• 95% of Mesa students currently enrolled in the HIT associate degree program are interested in pursuing a bachelor’s degree

• No public 4-year institution in the state currently offers a degree in HIM

• We have tremendous student demand, superior faculty, and overwhelming support from our healthcare industry partners who stand ready to employ our graduates
The Health Information Management (HIM) Degree Program

• Students will move seamlessly from the 2-year program → take the national exam in HIT → complete the last two years in the HIM program → take national exam for Registered Health Information Administrator (RHIA)

• Salaries for a health services manager typically range from nearly $83,000 to more than $144,000 annually*

• First cohort will be admitted Fall 2015

Guiding Principles for the Workforce and Economic Advisory Committee

- Its focus is on strategies that will support businesses that provide and create good jobs.
- Our goal is to assure education and training pipelines that will assure work-ready talent for those jobs.
- It must be regionally anchored and informed by regional data.
- It needs to be employer driven, and where appropriate, practitioner based in terms of the delivery of programs, i.e. instructors, onsite training, internships and apprenticeships.
- It should leverage, coordinate and accelerate the very fine programs that already exist from the many institutional providers in the city.
- It should acknowledge that as many as one in five adult citizens will be working for themselves in the future.
- It should spell out in concrete terms deliverables for each of the next five years in terms of participation in education and training programs, internships, and hires by local employers.
